

EZEQUIEL MOLINA

Senior Economist | Digital Innovation & AI Leader | Education Global Practice

The World Bank | Lima, Peru | molina@worldbank.org

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Winner of the inaugural WBG Presidential Innovation Award (2025) for "From Learning to Earning: Leveraging AI to Develop Skills for Jobs," personally leading the pitch to President Ajay Banga (1 of 7 winners selected Bank-wide). Recognized as one of the World Bank's leading voices on artificial intelligence in development, with AI and digital publications achieving over 175,000 downloads in about two years—comparable to flagship WDR reach with minimal publicity—and AI Tuesday newsletter reaching 10,000+ Bank staff weekly across all regions.

Pioneer in creating and scaling global public goods for digital transformation. Developed flagship programs now operating across multiple countries: Teach (40+ countries, 180,000+ teachers), Coach (15+ countries), and EI Director LIBRE (AI training program scaling across LAC with 2,000+ school directors trained in Peru, 25,000+ downloads since November 2025 launch). These programs demonstrate ability to design, validate, and scale digital solutions from concept to multi-country implementation.

Deep expertise in technology-enabled service delivery transformation across diverse development contexts, from fragile states (Afghanistan, Laos, Mozambique) to sophisticated middle-income economies (Chile, Uruguay, Brazil). Proven track record of ministerial-level policy dialogue, complex multi-stakeholder program management, and private sector partnerships with Google, Microsoft, and Anthropic.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Senior Economist, Education Global Practice | LAC Region (Aug 2023 - Present)

Regional Focal Point for Teachers and Educational Technology | Task Team Leader for Chile and Peru

- Digital Innovation Leadership: Winner of inaugural WBG Presidential Innovation Award; AI Champion for Education GP; created AI Tuesday newsletter reaching 10,000+ Bank staff; delivered AI training to 200+ colleagues across 5 regions; positioned Bank as regional thought leader on AI in education.
- AI Programs Scaling Across LAC: Leading multi-country AI training initiative with standardized products (EI Director LIBRE, EI Docente LIBRE) adapted to local contexts. Peru: RCT with ~500 teachers showing sustained adoption; 2,000 school directors trained nationally. El Salvador: RCT on EI Director LIBRE with DLI integration into World Bank operation.
- Partnership Development: Led Education Digitalization MoU with Inter-American Development Bank coordinating regional AI strategy across multilateral institutions. Established public-private partnership with Fundación Romero (Peru's largest bank's foundation), Microsoft, and UPC university to scale AI training nationally.
- Task Team Leader for Chile: Led Reimbursable Advisory Services on ECE financing equity, advising Minister of Education and Budget Office (DIPRES) on fiscal sustainability. Designed new ECE financing scheme through comparative analysis of 6+ countries and provider cost analysis.
- Task Team Leader for Peru: Co-TTL for Science, Technology & Innovation Project ($82.5M) coordinating cross-GP teams (Education and FCI). Rebuilt policy dialogue with Ministry following ministerial transition, transforming initial resistance into flagship AI initiative featured by Microsoft CEO.
- Regional Advisory Support: Advisor to El Salvador's $500M transformational EdTech and AI education reform, contributing to the DLI architecture of the country's largest education operation. Preparing regional MPA for 'LearnAI for Jobs' with four pillars: AI training, personalized learning apps, connectivity/devices, and AI solutions for operational efficiency.
